

STOP!

KNOW WHY YOU HATE BEFORE YOU DISCRIMINATE

THE TRUTH ABOUT “DEADBEAT” DADS

- 1.) The term “deadbeat” is hate speech on par with the N-word which is used to stir up hatred and negative emotions against divorced men and other non-custodial parents (NCPs).
- 2.) Haters use words like “deadbeat” to describe divorced dads or NCPS who are unable to pay artificial child support orders: in many cases, these orders are NOT based on actual incomes.
- 3.) Courts in the United States are arresting divorced dads and NCPs who are sick, disabled, suddenly unemployed, or otherwise unable to meet support payments -- even disabled military veterans.
- 4.) If a divorced dad or NCP suddenly loses his job, the failure to pay as little as $50 can result in arrest.
- 5.) Due to government collection tactics like driver’s license suspension, passport seizure, and negative credit ratings, divorced dads and NCPs who suddenly become unemployed are likely to NEVER find a job again.
- 6.) A heinous law known as the Bradley Amendment makes it impossible for divorced dads and NCPS to ever have back child support amounts reduced no matter what (sickness, disability, etc.); custodial mothers have the freedom to ask for upward retroactive adjustments.
- 7.) Thanks to the Bradley Amendment, divorced dads and NCPs facing hard times can never dig themselves out of debt.
- 8.) Many divorced dads and non-custodial parents who owe child support also never see their children due to inhumane visitation and custody orders.
- 9.) Under the doctrine of “support does not equal visitation”, custodial mothers can cut off access to children by moving them out of state or to foreign countries -- YET CAN STILL COLLECT CHILD SUPPORT!
- 10.) Use of “deadbeat” hate speech is harmful to divorced dads and NCPs who are fighting for their rights in America’s family courts where the odds are already stacked against them.

CHILD SUPPORT KILLS

Child Support Enforcement has led to the deaths of at least two men with medical disabilities -- Brian Armstrong killed by prison guards in New Hampshire, and Wilbur Streett in New Jersey. Both deaths have been brushed under the carpet by the authorities responsible.

Learn more at:
www.ncpforce.com/avenger.html

GET THE FACTS – LEARN WHY AMERICA NEEDS FAMILY LAW REFORM NOW!

NCPFORCE!

Go to: www.ncpforce.com